Village Party [Parish Council]

St Andrew's Church have asked the Parish Council to consider arranging an event this year as there will not be a Church Fete. This was agreed and an event will be held in the Village Grounds next to the Village Hall on 13th JULY from 14:00hrs. There will be a Bar, Live music by The Ratzkins, Food, Face Painting, Magician, Balloon Modelling, BBQ and Tea Pot stall run by Scouts plus much more besides. More details will be on flyers. Donations of cakes and biscuits are welcomed onto the Macmillan Stall. Other stalls are available free of charge for those of you whom wish to have one, a donation to the Church would be expected. NO DOGS in the grounds.

Parish Council Vacancy [Parish Council]

Tilmanstone Parish Council has an immediate vacancy for a Parish Clerk & Responsible Financial Officer. We offer a part-time post for 5 hours a week working from home and an attendance one evening meeting a month in Tilmanstone Village Hall. Occasionally there may be an additional evening meeting. Normally there are no meetings held in August or December but actions may still be required by the Clerk.

You must have experience of working independently, be well organised, possess good communication skills and be proficient in Microsoft Word and Excel. You will also need the ability to manage finances, prepare the accounts and oversee the annual budget. We have a Website and a Facebook page, which you will keep fresh and current for our residents. Central to the role is managing the meetings of the Parish Council, including preparing the agenda, taking the minutes, and monitoring actions & decisions.

Salary and conditions are in accordance with the NALC standard employment contract for part-time clerks. Previous experience as a clerk would be an advantage but you will be supported with training and professional development.

Please apply by email with a CV and covering letter for the attention of the Chairman of Tilmanstone Parish Council tilmanstone.brief@gmail.com
